EXPERIENCE

| WebDevelopment — April 2024 - June 2024

- Medicine Adherence Tracking System with Pill Reminders and Health Risk Scoring . Technologies: HTML, CSS, JavaScript, MySQL,Java Developed a digital healthcare system to track patient medication adherence and provide timely pill reminders. Implemented automated reminder alerts to reduce missed doses and improve treatment compliance. Designed a health risk scoring mechanism to analyze missed medications and identify potential health risks.Enabled secure storage and retrieval of patient medication data using a database system.Improved patient self-management and supported early risk detection through adherence analytics.

PROJECTS

Medicine Adherence Tracking System with Pill Reminders and Health Risk Scoring .Designed and implemented a medicine adherence tracking application with automated pill reminder functionality. Developed a health risk scoring model to assess patient risk based on missed doses and medication history. Worked on system design, database integration, and user-friendly interfaces for healthcare monitoring..

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

- Tech Fest Volunteer: Contributed to the web development team for college technical events, managing event schedules and result updates. Coding Practice Challenges: Regular participant in coding platforms like and LeetCode to enhance problem-solving skills.. Problem-Solving Group Leader Created and led a problem-solving group for competitive programming, preparing members for campus placements Event Coordinator – College Tech Fest Oversaw a 15-member volunteer team for scheduling, technical setup, and event updates; ensured real-time results were published on the event website.
